

The Porta Kleen Water System performs the functions of a typical indoor sanitation network by providing freshwater storage and transfer, as well as elimination and confinement of wastewater. The system offers an elegant yet rugged solution in a single all-season package.

Several installed Water Systems

The Water System's empty indicator light

View of an installed Water System

FEATURES & SPECIFICATIONS

- Durable aluminum alloy uni-body construction provides protection in a singular space saving footprint
- Empty light indicates when the system requires service
- Large capacity tanks reduce service frequency and extra-large waste tank helps prevent overfilling
- Built-in four season winterization package prevents hoses and waste line from freezing in harsh conditions
- System has dedicated breakers for pump and winterization components

REQUIRED

ELECTRIC
120 VAC 20A
dedicated single phase
(25-foot 3-prong cord included)

OPERATING TEMPERATURE
-20° to 120°F
-29° to 49°C

STORAGE
210-gallon
freshwater tank

STORAGE
250-gallon
black-water tank

WATER PUMP
3.3 gpm at 45 psi
(25-foot freshwater hose included)

SERVICE AREA

The Self-Contained Water System can be rented and serviced from Porta Kleen's Columbus, Cincinnati, Piqua and Louisville locations.

